Norwegian professors Elisabeth Eide and Rune Ottosen have nominated Julian Assange for 2021, link: <http://www.nobelwill.org/Julian-Assange2021.pdf> . Their concise arguments, based on and respecting, the antimilitarist purpose of Nobel's testament also apply, indeed, to Edward Snowden and Chelsea Manning.

A very precise argument for eligibility based on the purpose of Alfred Nobel's testament is also found in Mairead Maguire's nomination of Julian Assange for 2019, link: <http://www.nobelwill.org/Assange2019.pdf>
